

Ferno Tradesman Full Body Harness

The Ferno Tradesman is a comfortable, form fitting and multipurpose, fall arrest harness. Supplied standard with all stainless steel componentry, it is ideal for corrosive environments. Other standard features include waist strap, confined space attachment points, side 'D's and rear dorsal 'D' attachment points with dorsal extension.

Features

- Front fall arrest attachment points
- Rear free fall arrest attachment point with extension
- Pole strap attachment points
- Rear mesh panel shapes the harness ready for donning
- Steel double bar buckles for waist, chest and leg adjustments
- Reflective webbing for exceptional visibility in low light conditions
- Oil, grease and water repellent webbing
- Available S, M, L. Conditions apply for XS and XL
- Labelling/screen-printed mesh available - conditions apply
- Optional all alloy hardware

